

MISSION STATEMENT

Welcome to the Porn Film Festival Vienna, where we embark on the ambitious mission of showcasing and celebrating the vibrant diversity of pornography while sparking open, societal conversations. Our festival is dedicated to bringing a genre typically confined to private spaces back into the public realm of cinema.

At Porn Film Festival Vienna, we defy the monotony of conservative mainstream adult content, proudly presenting feminist, queer, and LGBTQIA+ perspectives. Our carefully curated film and theory program feature a diverse selection of feature films, documentaries, and shorts that explore a wide spectrum of sexual orientations, identities, and body norms. This is far from your typical cheesy mainstream porn; expect groundbreaking narratives that challenge norms.

Beyond the screen, PFV extends its impact with engaging Q&A sessions with filmmakers, thought-provoking panel discussions, insightful lectures, and our renowned workshops, making the festival a holistic experience over four immersive days.

Our aim is to foster an open and inclusive environment for reception, discussion, and reflection. The festival strives to challenge and broaden horizons, creating a safe space for collective dialogue on pornography, sexuality, and sexual identity. We believe that porn can be sensual, honest, friendly, and self-determined. Join us in redefining the conversation around adult content and embracing its multifaceted nature at the Porn Film Festival Vienna.

With love,

Yavuz Kurtulmus (Festival Director)

Jasmin Hagendorfer (Festival Director) &

Adrineh Simonian (Program Director)

EXHIBITION

PFFV x A...cademy of Fine KINK '24
New Intimate Horizons

The Student Representation for Fine Arts together with the The Porn Film Festival Vienna presents a special exhibition “PFFV x A...cademy of Fine KINK: New Intimate Horizons” at the Academy of Fine Arts, Room “EG Nord”, Lehargasse. On April 9th, there will be an extravagant vernissage where visitors are encouraged to become part of the performances.

The main theme of this year's exhibition “PFFV x A...cademy of Fine KINK: New Intimate Horizons” is the interaction between the realms of our realities and modern technology. Digital platforms such as Pornhub, Grindr, Tinder and the new AI sidekicks influence and change (sometimes even without our own awareness) our perceptions of concepts such as sex, gender and political practices, political behavior. These tools let us witness a new wave of sexual exploration and identity performance, but they are also definitively transforming power dynamics. How do we look at each other? How do we communicate and how do our bodies behave in the digital age?

Using various art forms such as photography, painting, installation, film, sculpture and performative practices, the exhibition endeavors to address these queries. “New Intimate Horizons” tries to change the narratives about pornography, which is still associated with taboo and shame in our culture, but furthermore showing it as a playground for questioning and transformation. The artists break and challenge society's conventional views and picture realities and futures of inclusivity, desire, freedom and safety in sexual expression. Each new (intimate) horizon offers a new perspective on the world and ourselves.
